What do Graduates say about Teach Arizona?
- “Teach Arizona was by far the most highly regarded program around. Before I even graduated I had been offered two jobs based on being a Teach Arizona graduate.”
  (Terry Reed, Graduate)
- “The Teach Arizona program, with its year-long student teaching internship, gave me great confidence going into my first teaching job. After completing the program, I felt so well prepared that I hardly felt like a new teacher at all!”
  (Scott Ohmstead, Graduate)

What do school districts say about Teach Arizona?
- “Teach Arizona connects a deep understanding of learning theory with rigorous classroom observations and practice, resulting in highly trained teachers that we hire the minute they graduate.”
  (Dr. Nic Clement, Former Superintendent, Flowing Wells School District)
- “Teach Arizona teachers are the best student teachers we have on our campus. They are well prepared, professional and I wish I had a job for them all.”
  (Mike Bejarano, former Principal, Ironwood Ridge High School, Amphitheater School District)

Udall Scholarship – Campus Deadline February 8, 2019

Are you committed to conservation, environmental stewardship, or environmental policy? Alternatively, are you a Native American or Alaska Native working towards a career that will enable you to make a difference to Indian country in the areas of policy or health care? The purpose of the Udall Scholarship, funded by the federal government through the Morris K. Udall and Stewart L. Udall Foundation, is to support a diverse group of students united by their interest in America’s heritage: natural resource protection, conservation, and Native American policy, health, and governance. The scholarship offers up to $7,000 for tuition, room and board, or other educational expenses. New Udall Scholars participate in a four-day orientation in Tucson, Arizona, which is a central part of the Udall experience. Udall Scholars (and Honorable Mentions) gain access to a network of environmental, Native American health, and tribal policy professionals through the alumni listserv.

Udall Scholarship applicants must meet the following criteria:
- Commitment to a career related to the environment or a Native American/Alaskan Native who is committed to a career in tribal public policy or Native American health care
- Sophomore or Junior who will be a full-time student in the year of the award
- GPA of at least “B”
- U.S. citizen, national, or permanent resident

Students interested in applying should contact David Neufeld at davidyneufeld@email.arizona.edu to learn more about the scholarship and to obtain access to the application materials. The deadline to apply is February 8, 2019.

Astronaut Scholarship - Campus Deadline February 15, 2019

Supported by more than 80 astronauts connected to the US space program, the Astronaut Scholarship attempts to ensure that the US maintains its leadership in science and technology by supporting students in natural or applied science, engineering, or mathematics. Each Astronaut Scholar receives $10,000. Qualifying schools, including the University of Arizona, are able to nominate two students each year for this award. An interdisciplinary, university-wide committee will choose the two strongest candidates as our institution’s nominees.

Astronaut Scholarship applicants must meet the following criteria:
- Student in engineering, natural or applied science, or mathematics who intends to pursue research or advance their field upon completion of their final degree(s)
- Sophomore or junior
- Excellent grades
- Participation in lab and research work in their field
- US citizen

Successful nominees will have demonstrated initiative, creativity, and excellence in their chosen field. They will have stood out in the eyes of faculty members, enough to secure two strong letters of recommendation. Significant research experience is highly recommended, as is strong academic performance, work ethic, and leadership.

Those interested in applying should contact David Neufeld (davidyneufeld@email.arizona.edu) in advance of the on-campus deadline of Feb. 15, 2019 at 5:00 p.m.

Boren Scholarship and Fellowship Webinars

Overview webinars for the Boren awards are recorded and available to watch anytime at https://borenawards.org/webinars. The foundation will also be hosting live end-of-cycle webinars to address frequently-asked questions as well as any others applicants can think of:

- LIVE Q&A Webinar (for Boren Scholarships applicants) - Tuesday, January 29 at 5:00-6:00 pm EST https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/5129913732549192204

Scholarship for Native Students

Visit the Udall Foundation’s Facebook page to access video resources that orient students to the Udall Scholarship application process. Topics include an overview of the Tribal policy and Native health care categories (Indian Country) of the scholarship, eligibility requirements, and benefits.

Other Scholarship Opportunities (no campus deadline)

Phi Kappa Phi Undergraduate Fellowship, Study Abroad, and Literacy Grants

The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi currently awards fifty Fellowships of $8,500 each, six at $20,000 each, and two at $35,000 each to members entering their first year of graduate or professional study. Each active Phi Kappa Pi chapter may select one candidate from among its local applicants to compete for the Society-wide awards. Phi Kappa Phi Study Abroad Grants are designed to help support undergraduates as they seek knowledge and experience in their academic fields by studying abroad. Seventy-five $1,000 grants are awarded each year. The Literacy Grants program was initiated to mobilize members and resources of Phi Kappa Phi and the higher education community to champion literacy initiatives. Grants of up to $2,500 are available to Phi Kappa Phi chapters and individual members to fund ongoing literacy projects or to create new initiatives. More information at the Phi Kappa Phi website.

Mount Vernon Leadership Fellows Program 2019 – January 31, 2019

The Mount Vernon Leadership Fellows Program is a highly selective six-week summer institute for rising college juniors offering unparalleled learning and networking opportunities at the home of America’s first president just outside our nation’s capital. We offer an all-inclusive six-week program that provides housing, transportation, meals, and a $3,000 stipend.

The Mount Vernon Leadership Fellows program offers a dynamic leadership curriculum that encourages students to examine their strengths, identify areas for growth, and ultimately take action as a leader. Students are afforded the opportunity of meeting with and learning from current leaders of national prominence in the government, journalism, business and nonprofits sectors. Leadership Fellows will learn how to take a personal passion and turn it into a blueprint for action as a Capstone Project. Leadership Fellows spend some of their time working on their individual capstones while at Mount Vernon, culminating in a final presentation at the conclusion of the program. Applicants must be a currently enrolled college sophomore in good standing, proven leadership ability and involvement, demonstrated interest in the proposed capstone project, have a cumulative GPA of 3.4 or higher, and be a current U.S. citizen. For more information visit the Mount Vernon Leadership Fellows website. The deadline to apply is January 31, 2019.

Phi Alpha Delta Pre-Law Fraternity Recruitment

- Info Sessions: January 22nd and January 24th at 6:30 @ the law school room 168
- Initiation: January 29th at 7pm
- Makeup initiation February 5th at 7 pm

About: Phi Alpha Delta is the largest co-ed professional law fraternity in the United States. Phi Alpha Delta has members who are university students, law school students, lawyers, judges, and politicians.
Are you passionate about creating change and making an impact in your community? If so, the Spring 2019 Design Thinking Challenge is for you! The purpose of this program is for students like you to work on teams to generate solutions for one of three Tucson nonprofit organizations who are seeking input from UA students on real problems facing their organizations.

What You Need to Know:
1. You don't have to do this on your own. You can bring your own team or join a team when you register and choose the challenge to solve together.
2. You'll get some guidance along the way. Each team has a mentor to support them in creative problem-solving, including pitching ideas to clients, judges, and potential employers, creating and testing prototypes.
3. All majors, years, ideas and perspectives are welcome. There is no cost to participate and no previous experience required.
4. Teams will compete for prizes and the opportunity to see their ideas implemented.

Why Participate?
Most employers want to see a college graduate who has experience working on a team and solving complex problems. This Design Thinking Challenge will give you an opportunity to learn and practice these essential skills and apply them to creating real change within our community.

Upon completion, you will earn an engaged learning notation on your academic transcript to highlight your experience on your resume.

Cognitive Neuroscience of Language Lab

EEG experiment starting up where participants will be paid $15 for their participation.
Undergraduate and Graduate students welcome.

My name is Rachel Brown, and I’m a PhD student in the Cognitive Neuroscience of Language Lab at the UofA. I’m looking for people who are able to participate in an experiment on campus. It is an electroencephalography (EEG) experiment where you read English sentences and answer questions about them. It takes 1.5 hours in total and will be completed in the Psychology Building Rm 113 at the UofA. Participants will be compensated with $15 cash. However, there are some criteria. You have to be:

- affiliated with the UofA
- native speaker of American English that had not been exposed to any other language before age 6
- Right-Handed
- not taking medications directly impacting the brain (anti-depressants, epilepsy medication, etc.)
- no history of brain injury or surgery
- haven’t completed "Reading EEG Experiment" last semester

If you are eligible, please visit https://arizona-linguistics.sona-systems.com/, create an account, and sign up for the "EEG experiment: Reading phrases ($15 compensation)".

Information about signing-up can be found here: https://linguistics.arizona.edu/research-opportunities.
You can also email me at rachelbrown@email.arizona.edu for more information.
