Teach Arizona

Earn a master's degree and become certified to teach grades 6-12 in Arizona in just one year!

Teach Arizona is a one-year master's degree program for people who have earned a bachelor's degree and wish to become middle or high school teachers (grades 6-12). All students begin together, take coursework together, and finish as a group. Coursework begins in the UA's pre-session semester in May and culminates with commencement the following May. Students intern in public schools for the full school year.

Website: https://www.coe.arizona.edu/teach-arizona

Content Areas Include:
- Math
- Physics
- Chemistry
- Biology
- Earth Science
- General Science
- Spanish
- American Sign Language
- Mandarin
- French
- English
- History
- Political Science
- Economics
- Middle School Social Studies
  (combined history & pol. sci. units)

Admission Criteria:
- B.A. or B.S. from an accredited four-year institution
- Strong background (approximately 24 units) in one of the approved content areas.
- 3.0 cumulative undergraduate GPA
- 3.0 GPA in content area coursework

Locations in Tucson and Phoenix
- For students in Pima County, Teach Arizona is presented in its traditional face-to-face format at the UA, with student teaching occurring in Pima County school districts.
- For students in northern Pinal County and Maricopa County, Teach Arizona is presented in a hybrid format, with student teaching internships occurring in Phoenix-area school districts. The hybrid coursework primarily consists of online instruction, with required face-to-face meetings in Chandler, AZ scheduled throughout the program.
Can I Afford It?
- Visit the Teach Arizona website, “Tuition and Financial Aid” link
- Complete the FAFSA form – most tuition assistance options require a FAFSA
- Teach Arizona students are eligible to apply for the Arizona Teachers Academy

How do I Apply?
- Visit our website: https://www.coe.arizona.edu/teach-arizona
- For questions contact Adriana Miramontez, graduate coordinator, at agmirbav@email.arizona.edu or 520-621-6993

What do Graduates say about Teach Arizona?
- “Teach Arizona was by far the most highly regarded program around. Before I even graduated I had been offered two jobs based on being a Teach Arizona graduate.”
  (Terry Reed, Graduate)
- “The Teach Arizona program, with its year-long student teaching internship, gave me great confidence going into my first teaching job. After completing the program, I felt so well prepared that I hardly felt like a new teacher at all!”
  (Scott Olmstead, Graduate)

What do school districts say about Teach Arizona?
- “Teach Arizona connects a deep understanding of learning theory with rigorous classroom observations and practice, resulting in highly trained teachers that we hire the minute they graduate.”
  (Dr. Nic Clement, former Superintendent, Flowing Wells School District)
- “Teach Arizona teachers are the best student teachers we have on our campus. They are well prepared, professional and I wish I had a job for them all.”
  (Mike Bejarano, former Principal, Ironwood Ridge High School, Amphitheater School District)

Next Steps:
- Read through the website for more information about the calendar, courses, and financial aid.
- We are happy to answer your questions! Please email us at teach@email.arizona.edu and attach your unofficial transcripts so we can better advise you.

Udall Scholarship – Campus Deadline February 8, 2019

Are you committed to conservation, environmental stewardship, or environmental policy? Alternatively, are you a Native American or Alaska Native working towards a career that will enable you to make a difference to Indian country in the areas of policy or health care? The purpose of the Udall Scholarship, funded by the federal government through the Morris K. Udall and Stewart L. Udall Foundation, is to support a diverse group of students united by their interest in America’s heritage: natural resource protection, conservation, and Native American policy, health, and governance. The scholarship offers up to $7,000 for tuition, room and board, or other educational expenses. New Udall Scholars participate in a four-day orientation in Tucson, Arizona, which is a central part of the Udall experience. Udall Scholars (and Honorable Mentions) gain access to a network of environmental, Native American health, and tribal policy professionals through the alumni listserv.

Udall Scholarship applicants must meet the following criteria:
- Commitment to a career related to the environment or a Native American/Alaskan Native who is committed to a career in tribal public policy or Native American health care
- Sophomore or junior who will be a full-time student in the year of the award
- GPA of at least “B”
- U.S. citizen, national, or permanent resident

Students interested in applying should contact David Neufeld at davidyneufeld@email.arizona.edu to learn more about the scholarship and to obtain access to the application materials. The deadline to apply is February 8, 2019.

Astronaut Scholarship - Campus Deadline February 15, 2019

Supported by more than 80 astronauts connected to the US space program, the Astronaut Scholarship attempts to ensure that the US maintains its leadership in science and technology by supporting students in natural or applied science, engineering, or mathematics. Each Astronaut Scholar receives $10,000. Qualifying schools, including the University of Arizona, are able to nominate two students each year for this award. An interdisciplinary, university-wide committee will choose the two strongest candidates as our institution’s nominees.

Astronaut Scholarship applicants must meet the following criteria:
- Student in engineering, natural or applied science, or mathematics who intends to pursue research or advance their field upon completion of their final degree(s)
- Sophomore or junior
- Excellent grades
- Participation in lab and research work in their field
- US citizen

Successful nominees will have demonstrated initiative, creativity, and excellence in their field. They will stand out in the eyes of faculty members, enough to have two strong letters of recommendation. Significant research experience is recommended, as is strong academic performance, work ethic, and leadership. Those interested in applying, contact David Neufeld (davidyneufeld@email.arizona.edu) in advance of the on-campus deadline of Feb. 15, 2019 at 5:00 p.m.

Ph. Kappa Phi Undergraduate Fellowship, Study Abroad, and Literacy Grants
The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi awards fifty Fellowships of $8,500 each, six at $20,000 each, and two at $35,000 each to members entering their first year of graduate or professional study. Each active PKP chapter selects one candidate from local applicants to compete for the Society-wide awards. PKP Study Abroad Grants are designed to help support undergraduates as they seek experience by studying abroad. Seventy-five $1,000 grants are awarded each year. The Literacy Grants program was initiated to mobilize members and resources of PKP and the higher education community to champion literacy initiatives. Grants up to $2,500 are available to PKP chapters and individual members to fund literacy projects or for new initiatives. More information: PKP website.

Mobility International USA Access to Exchange Fellowship – February 15, 2019
The National Clearinghouse on Disability and Exchange (NCDE) is launching “Access to Exchange Fellowship”. The NCDE is seeking college students and recent graduates in the United States interested in a career in international exchange! The goal of the fellowship is to provide college students and recent graduates professional and leadership skills related to international exchange disability inclusion. Cognitive Neuroscience of Language Lab

EEG experiment starting up where participants will be paid $15 for their participation. Undergraduate and Graduate students welcome.

My name is Rachel Brown, and I'm a PhD student in the Cognitive Neuroscience of Language Lab at the UofA. I'm looking for people who are able to participate in an experiment on campus. It is an electroencephalography (EEG) experiment where you read English sentences and answer questions about them. It takes 1.5 hours in total and will be completed in the Psychology Building Rm 113 at the UofA. Participants will be compensated with $15 cash. However, there are some criteria. You have to be:

• Affiliated with the UofA
• Native speaker of American English that had not been exposed to any other language before age 6
• Right-Handed
• Not taking medications directly impacting the brain (anti-depressants, epilepsy medication, etc).
• No history of brain injury or surgery
• Haven't completed "Reading EEG Experiment" last semester

If you are eligible, please visit https://arizona-linguistics.sona-systems.com/, create an account, and sign up for the "EEG experiment: Reading phrases ($15 compensation)".

You can also access the experiment at: https://arizona-linguistics.sona-systems.com/default.aspx?p_return_experiment_id=53

Information about signing-up can be found here: https://linguistics.arizona.edu/research-opportunities.

You can email me at rachelbrown@email.arizona.edu for more information.
