2019 BLACK HISTORY MONTH

RACE AND AMERICAN LAW

THE HONORABLE
RONALD A. WILSON

Rorald A. Wilson, UA Title IX Director and a former presiding judge for the city of South Tucson, will speak about the historical relationships between the law and race in the United States. Wilson will discuss policy areas including criminal justice, housing, health care, education and legal topics like the Black Codes, Slave Codes, the Bill of Rights, sentencing guidelines, equal protection and due process. Wilson will examine historic and current legal doctrine to foster independent thinking about the relationship between American law and race to enable students to explore the interrelationships between them.

A former UA faculty member, Mr. Wilson has served as a chief diversity officer, equal opportunity administrator and investigator, agency open record officer, Title IX coordinator for gender equity in sport and Title IX investigator at Edinboro University in Pennsylvania. He earned his law degree from Northeastern University after attaining a bachelor’s degree from Syracuse University. Following law school, he was a John D. Sustainable Built Environments Survey

I am studying Sustainable Built Environments here at the University of Arizona. I am researching the importance/existence of sustainability and environmental education prior to college. This student survey will help me to quantify if students were exposed to such sustainability concepts before entering college and provide measurable data for my capstone.

CESL Part-Time Program
Potential Schedule of English classes Spring II, 2019

General English: These classes combine all four-language skills: speaking, listening, reading, and writing while focusing on grammar structures, vocabulary building and pronunciation. All levels are offered; Basic, Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced.

- Tuesday & Thursday 6:00-8:00 pm
- Proficiency Level: All levels

Pronunciation: This intermediate-level course is for students who want to learn American English pronunciation through intensive practice. Course goals include increasing accuracy in reception and production, reducing accent, analyzing the sounds of American English, and developing phonemic discrimination skills.

- Monday & Wednesday 6:00-8:00 pm
- Proficiency Level: Intermediate

Conversation: This intermediate-level course is for students who want to develop their knowledge and use of spoken English. It focuses on all the factors that play a role in casual conversation, including pronunciation, slang, idioms, and colloquial language. It also focuses on popular topics that reflect Americans’ cultural interests.

- Monday & Wednesday 6:00-8:00 pm
- Proficiency Level: Intermediate

TOEFL Preparation: This advanced-level course focuses on the development of the writing, reading, speaking, and listening skills needed to be successful on the TOEFL test. Students will expand their existing language knowledge and skills through a focus on vocabulary, grammar, rhetorical forms, as well as test-taking strategies.

- Monday & Wednesday 3:10-5:10 pm
- Proficiency Level: Advanced

Advanced Grammar: This advanced-level ESL course is designed for students who want to master complex grammatical structures used in writing and speaking both in professional and academic settings through the identification of grammatical errors and the development of editing skills.

- Tuesday & Thursday 6:00-8:00 pm
- Proficiency Level: Advanced

Advanced Conversation: This advanced-level ESL course is designed for students with a proficient use of English language who want to improve their public speaking skills in business and academic settings. Students will learn how to design and deliver an effective presentation using effective visual aids and public speaking skills.

- Monday & Wednesday 6:00-8:00 pm
- Proficiency level: Advanced
