Advantages of an Internship:
An internship can provide you with valuable skills that you can list on your résumé and carry forward into employment. You will make valuable professional contacts and learn how programs operate behind the scenes.

Description:
- Office duties: Data entry, typical office duties, event preparation, other duties as assigned.
- Professionalism: Candidate will be working with physicians, resident trainees, program leadership and staff.
- Goals: Candidate will learn medical terminology, how medical education programs operate, the role of physicians in hospitals, clinics, and as faculty. Candidate will learn or strengthen knowledge of software, human resources practices and health care systems.
- Hours: A 2-unit internship is 90 hours over the course of the semester. This is about 6 hours per week.
- Location: College of Medicine (3 interns @ 1501 N Campbell), Family Medicine (1 intern at 707 N. Alviron Way)
- Semester available: Prefer academic year commitment (Fall 2019–Spring 2020). Summer is available.

Positions:
Four. One will be in the Family Medicine Residency Program, Three will be in the Internal Medicine Residency Program. Hours will be either Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday. Must be available during business hours during those days.

Contact:
For both internships, email résumé, unofficial transcript and class schedule for fall 2019 to respective department administrators. Internal Medicine– Kerith Lisa kerith@deptofmed.arizona.edu
Family Medicine– Kelsey Gender kgender@email.arizona.edu

LifeSTEP Intern
(Life Skills Training and Enhancement Program)
Fall 2019

The psychology clinic has established a community service agency that provides undergraduate life skills trainers (and mentors) to school-aged youth with emotional and/or behavioral problems. The vast majority of these children are from a minority group living in poverty in Tucson and are struggling with a variety of emotional and behavior problems. We are currently accepting applications for the Fall 2019 semester.

As a LifeSTEP (Life Skills Training and Enhancement Program) intern, you would be meeting with your assigned youth about once a week for about 4 hours each time. Activities might include going to the movies, getting an ice cream, going bowling or spending time at a park, etc (you would be reimbursed for your expenses including gas). You would receive 3 units of internship credit (393 or 493 depending on your U of A status), and you would have the opportunity to receive training in this area. We are especially in need of male interns (due to the high number of older boys in need of a positive male role model), and we are also in need of female interns.

If you are interested (and are at least 18 years old), please complete the application linked below & email it back to julief@u.arizona.edu. I will be holding an informational meeting about the program for all applicants on Thursday, May 2 (reading day - no classes or finals scheduled) in the afternoon.

I looking forward to hearing from you - Julie

Schwarzman Scholars Event

Thursday, April 18, 2019

Schwarzman Scholars is a highly-selective, fully-funded scholarship program, based at Tsinghua University in Beijing. The program is designed to prepare a new generation of leaders to deepen understanding between China and other global actors around the world. It aims to achieve this by (1) recruiting promising young leaders; (2) educating them about China’s global role via a one-year Master’s in Global Affairs; and (3) linking them to senior mentors in their field in China and to their peers among China’s rising young leaders. A video introduction to the program can be found here and a full brochure describing the program here.

Christian Tanja, a Schwarzman representative, will be visiting campus on Thursday, April 18, 2019. In addition to offering an information session, he is willing to meet with students one-on-one to discuss possible application to the program. If you would be interested in taking advantage of this opportunity, please contact Dr. David Neufeld, Assistant Director of the Office of Nationally Competitive Scholarships, at davidyneufeld@email.arizona.edu.

More information about the time and place of specific events to follow soon.
The James E. Rogers College of Law, in collaboration with the Center for Middle Eastern Studies, Presents:

Arzoo Osanloo JD, PhD

Judicial Forbearance Advocacy
Conflict and Mediation in Iranian Criminal Courts

Iran’s criminal justice system affords victims of crime the right of retributive sanctioning. At the same time, the law encourages victims to forgo that right. The penal code also compels judicial officials to attempt to achieve reconciliation. However, the law provides little guidance, either to victims or judicial officials, on how to bring about reconciliation. This talk explores Iran’s victim-centered criminal justice system through an examination of judges’ roles in mediation and further reflects on the relationship between forbearance and rights in criminal justice. Register here.

April 11, 2019 5:00 p.m.
Charles E. Ares Auditorium 164 (outdoor classroom)

Arzoo Osanloo is a legal anthropologist (JD, Washington College of Law, American University; PhD, Anthropology, Stanford University) who is an associate professor in the Department of Law, Societies, and Justice and the Director of the Middle East Center at the University of Washington, Seattle. She is the author of, The Politics of Women’s Rights in Iran (Princeton University Press, 2009), which analyzes the politicization of women’s “rights talk” in Iran. Her second book, Codifying Mercy: Forgiveness Work and Victims’ Rights in Iranian Criminal Sanctioning (Princeton University Press, forthcoming), examines the Muslim mandates of forgiveness, compassion, and mercy as they take shape through Iran’s criminal justice system.
