Homeland Security Investigations
Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) is the largest investigative agency of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. HSI is a vital United States asset in combating criminal organizations exploiting America’s trade, travel and financial systems.

HSI’s workforce includes special agents, intelligence research specialists, technical enforcement officers, computer forensics analysts, seized property specialists, auditors, and administrative staff. Its men and women are assigned to cities throughout the U.S. and to offices around the world.

HSI Tucson Spring 2020 Semester Internship
HSI recruits interns from a wide variety of educational backgrounds, including criminal justice, business and public administration, computer science, and engineering.

The internship provides unpaid opportunities for students, who want to develop their professional skills and explore career paths within HSI. Students will also be exposed to various investigative fields and firearms & tactical training.

Students may enroll in an internship course to earn academic credit, which requires an average of 10-12 hours per week, for successful completion of the program.

Further questions may be emailed to: HSI TucsonSVP@ice.dhs.gov
