Pima County Democratic Party Internship
School of Government and Public Policy, POLITICAL SCIENCE Students

General Description: The Pima County Democratic Party (PCDP) is the local branch of one of the oldest existing Political Parties in the world. As Democrats in Pima County, we are proud of a uniquely successful history. Of all the counties in Arizona, the PCDP is known for its grassroots organizational skills and its incredible ability to rally support and wage winning campaigns. In short, we work hard to elect Democrats at all levels of government in the state of Arizona.

Internship Available: Summer – Yes  Fall – Yes  Spring – Yes

Deadlines: Students looking to receive credit for their PCDP internship should apply at least one month before the University deadline to apply for internship credit.

Internship Description: Unpaid

PCDP interns will be expected to navigate a highly charged political environment and complete tasks in a variety of different departments. The internship is a highly versatile and dynamic experience, with every day being different and bringing new challenges than the one before it.

Purpose of the Internship: The internship provides a view into the world of government and political campaigns and will expose the intern to different careers in the political realm. Interns will learn skills related to:
- Campaign-specific technology
- Event planning
- Communications
- And much, much more

Additional Information: Interns will be expected to put “their all” into the job, and work hard to support Democratic candidates and officials.

To Apply: Please email a resume to info@pimadems.org to apply.

Expected Contact: We will contact you via email as soon as we can to set up an in-person interview.
