The duties of an intern will vary depending on the intern's own strengths and abilities but will consist in supporting the Pima County Democratic Party staff in whatever capacity possible. This will include administrative support to the office, conducting donor research and fundraising for the local Democratic Party. A partial list of duties would include staffing events, conducting interface with the public on behalf of the local Democratic Party, supporting Democratic politicians running for local and state office and learning about and utilizing the technological tools the national Democratic Party uses for the benefit of the county party. Further duties will be assigned as the intern gains knowledge and experience with the end goal of the intern becoming a critical part of Democratic Party campaigning and fundraising in Pima County.
