The Pima County Bar Association (PCBA) is a private, voluntary 501 © (6) nonprofit association of attorneys and other legal professionals. We provide a variety of services to our 1500 members, as well as services to the general public, such as our established Lawyer Referral Service. For more information, visit our website at www.pimacountybar.org.

There are two internship positions available at PCBA with at least an 8 hour per week commitment:

- Intern #1 – the “Strategic Planning” intern, will assist with various projects that arise from items addressed by our Strategic Planning Committee. Specifically, this position may involve research, data collection, marketing, making community connections and other activities that aid in the development and enhancement of new and ongoing PCBA programs.

- Intern #2 – the “Lawyer Referral Service” intern, will assist with program evaluation, feedback, and data collection pertaining to clients’ experiences with the Lawyer Referral Service program and its participating attorneys. Specifically, the person in this position will help to contact clients, gather survey information and compile results; thus helping us to identify good points and concerns, and improve/enhance the program’s operations.
